Thank you, John.

The folder: It does exist☺, you just need to make sure the whole name (through the "ETC") is included. I now added a subfolder for neurological effects: I will stick these files there (even though I cannot open them).

Thank you for following up with ICF.

That folder does not exist

I'll ask ICF to get the Wizard results spreadsheet together for all the models

Thank you, John. Can you please save it here:

L:\Lab\NCEA\FORMALDEHYDE\2013 Draft Assembly Materials\Appendices\Dose Response Modeling BBDR ETC

I may need some advice on model selection.

If you want advice on interpretation or model selection, let me know.

I have the BMDS files (data file, session file, option files, output files) archived on my computer.
Should I copy this material to a share drive ?

(One nice thing about Wizard and Dragon -- once it's delivered, we can modify and re-run easily without sending it to ICF)

Hi John,

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

Is that ICF contract in place?

If so, can we just have them quickly run the model (based on last time, it should take them all of 15 minutes)?

Thank you,
Andrew

ICF turned this around in less than 90 minutes
